SUICIDE FEARED.

Hyde Juror Escapes From Hotel.

Puts Dummy in Bed, Climbs Through Transom and Disappears.

Sight of Children in Court Upsets Him; Begged for His Wife.

Sunday Is Spent in Playing "Home, Sweet Home" on the Violin.

TRY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] KANSAS CITY, Dec. 11.—A trial of the second hearing of Dr. B. Clark Hyde, charged with having killed Col. Thomas H. Swope, appears probable tonight.

Made his escape by the sight of two of his children, from whom he had been separated for six weeks. In the courtroom last Saturday, Harry Waldron, one of the jurors, escaped from the jurors' hotel quarters early today. While Frank Jasper, a deputy County Marshal, who was on guard, slept, Waldron, who had opened a hallowed transom, crawled through the opening, tiptoed to a fire escape and leaped fifteen feet to freedom.

The entire city police force and a dozen deputies from the County Marshal's office have searched for him since his absence was noted near day-light.

FEAR OF SUICIDE. If Waldron is not located by tomorrow night, the eleven remaining jurors will be discharged, Judge Porterfield said today. Or if the missing man is found and he cannot prove that he has not discussed the case during his absence, the same action will be taken. Should he return in good health and condition, he has mentioned the trial to no one, and the court is satisfied with his story, the trial will proceed.

Fear that Waldron has killed himself grows hourly. He was in a highly agitated state when he last seen Sunday night, as, indeed, he had been almost every day since he was chosen a juror.

He objected to serving when he was first selected, saying his dairy interests would not permit his absence. Later, he was taken ill and begged pitifully for his wife and children. His wife wrote him daily and he seemed better contented.

Then, Saturday, his children came to see him. He spied them in the courtroom from his seat in the jury box. He smiled and nodded. When court adjourned, he grasped them in his arms and kissed and fondled them.

"HOME, SWEET HOME." Yesterday was Sunday, and a dull day for the jurors sitting around their hotel. Some of them played games, and others read. But Waldron sat alone, playing his old and battered violin. "Home, Sweet Home," was his favorite tune. He played it over and over again.

Even if Waldron's escape should result in a man's life, who would most likely be inflicted upon him? No severe punishment could be inflicted upon him. He is in contempt of court, but the maximum penalty for this offense is a fine of $50 or a ten-days' jail sentence.

Attorneys and hundreds of spectators remained about the courtroom all day, anxiously awaiting the return of Waldron. Scores of theories regarding the disappearance were offered, but the disappearance of suicide was most generally accepted. Officers think worry about his family may have deranged him.

Prosecutor Conkling issued a statement intimating Waldron had been induced to escape. Attorneys for Dr. Hyde gave out a written statement deplored the incident and setting forth that he had always urged a speedy trial of their client. They were especially emphatic in denying the prosecutor's insinuations.

NEWS OF ESCAPE. The first hint of the juror's escape came from T. Halloway and Frank Jasper, deputy marshals who found the transom torn away from the door of the room. Waldron had occupied the room occupied by the jury. A few of the deputies were sent immediately in pursuit.

When the news of Waldron's disappearance was carried to the courtroom just before time for court to convene, attorneys for both sides immediately went into conference to determine the effect of the incident on the case. Prosecutor Conkling said the State would at once start an investigation to determine whether Waldron had been induced to escape.

Attorney Walsh, for the defense, said he would ask that officers be appointed to take charge of the jury and Waldron could be found.

As to whether the matter would result in a mistrial, Judge Porterfield said that would depend upon Waldron's course during his period of liberty should he be captured.

Domestic trouble is said to have caused Waldron to grow restless under confinement as a juror. He owned and conducted a dairy farm on the outskirts of the city.

On November 29, Waldron's sudden illness caused an adjournment of the trial. Waldron's indisposition was said to be due to worry over home affairs.

To prevent his roommate and fellow-juror, G. W. Palmer, from upsetting his plans, Waldron constructed a dummy man of bed quilts and slipped it into his place in the bed. He then removed a staple from the transom of the door and climbed over. When Palmer arose this morning he nudged his dummy bed-fellow to arouse him and then spread the thing more on that subject," said Burns.

Indianapolis is teeming with detectives. Thirty-five operatives, some of them Burns men, some from other towns, were quartered in the downtown section of the city, Monday morning. Every entrance and exit to this city is guarded secretly. There are government agents mixed in with the private detectives.

Burns is a private detective.

The downtown hotel houses have their full quota of operatives. These operatives are well dressed, fine appearing men for the most part, ostensibly tourists, but in reality men of action and discourse jovially with one another in groups of two and three. They always are careful to be overcome with mirth and good spirits, never permitting the suspicion of a frown to settle upon them.

FEEBLE, AGHAST,
ROSEN RETURNS.Family of Los Angeles Man
Killed in Russia.Penniless and Grief-stricken

Start Over Again.(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PT. WORTH, Dec. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Penniless and enfeebled after a year's wandering, hardship and grief, Sam Rosen, formerly a citizen of Los Angeles, a ruined, disillusioned American, arrived in Pt. Worth today. A few years ago he was wealthy. Rosen recently arrived from Russia, where he hurried to rescue his eldest son from the horrible death which overtook his wife and four other children. They were all put to death.

In November, 1910, Mrs. Rosen wanted to see her native country again and went to Russia accompanied by her five children. Soon after their arrival the Chief Police Officer of St. Petersburg and his aids were slain by the authorities for the crime. In an attempt to escape arrest, Mrs. Rosen, her two sons and two daughters, were massacred. The eldest son escaped, but was captured a little later. The son got word to his father in Los Angeles, who sold his home and hurried to Russia in a desperate attempt to save his son.

He used his entire fortune trying to avert execution, but failed. Just before his son was shot to death Rosen appealed to the American Consul and got for an answer, "Send your son to any other country but Russia."

Rosen carried his son's body himself to a burial place and dug the grave with his own hands. The family once paid $500 to see his son for five minutes. He is receiving assistance here and expects to return to Los Angeles soon.

SHANAHAN FIGHTING FOR HIS FREE TEXT-BOOK BILL.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11.—Senator Shanahan's resolution to submit to the people a constitutional amendment providing for the free distribution of text-books was adopted by the Assembly today, after an unsuccessful attempt to amend it to make it insert an amendment extending the application of the measure to parochial schools. The vote was 54 to 8. The Assemblymen who voted adversely were Coghlan, Cogswell, Maher, Mullaley, Ryan, Schmidt, Walsh and Wyllie. The resolution was introduced in the Assembly by Assemblyman Smith of Oakland.

Assemblyman Ryan of San Francisco introduced the parochial school amendment, which was defeated in a vote of 59 to 22, after a call of the house, the second of the present session, on a motion to defer action until tomorrow. Coghlan and MacDonnell defended the Ryan amendment and Smith opposed it. There was no debate on the resolution. The measure probably will be brought before the Senate tomorrow, where it is believed to be.

EEK VAN VLISSINGEN PARDON.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—A movement has been started among the friends of Peter Van Vliessingen, confessed forger of $4,000,000 in forged checks, to obtain his pardon from the State Penitentiary. Van Vliessingen was sentenced November 14, 1904, to an indeterminate sentence of from one to fourteen years, after he had made a confession to the State's attorney. Attorney H. J. Thal, who represented Van Vliessingen in divorce proceedings subsequent to his imprisonment, admitted last night that an effort would be made to have the pardon board release Van Vliessingen.THIRD MURDER STIRS KANSAS provements, and the insurgents held that they should seize the opportunity and the glory would be theirs.

"But there stood Controller Nyce, Senator Jackson—who refused to move, contenting that there was ready with all the data to properly and equitably adjust the rates—that the State board and Tax Commissioner were not to blame. So the scheme was abandoned and the revenue problem was left out of the call for the extra session.

HERE IS THE JOKER.

"But here lies the joker: The insurgents advocated the bifurcated session of the Legislature, and the people voted approval on October 10, last, and as a result the Legislature will meet in January, 1913, stay in session a month, then go home for a month and then return again two or three months, and the Governor will have thirty days to pass on the bills.

"Now, as the taxes are a hen on the first Monday in March, it is apparent that no Legislature can be convened, and private service corporations can take effect until January 1914 because the referendum amendments by which the government was restored to the people are not to be voted on until ninety days after the adjournment of the Legislature. To this is an exception, but the raising of the rates does not fall within the exception.

"It is any wonder that Senator Cutten should try to show that we are deserving of a deficit of $1,700,000?" But Controller Nyce will not be beaten.

Cutter to the Legislature, and the citizens of Los Angeles a ruined, disillusioned American, arrived in Pt. Worth today. A few years ago he was wealthy. M'NAMARAS TOIL AT JUTE LOOMS.

As Convicts They Begin to Labor in San Quentin.

Awakened at Six to Eat Beans for Breakfast.

Brothers in Crime Make a Study of Prison Rules.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES] SAN QUENTIN (Cal.) Dec. 11.—John J. McNamara and John J. McNamee, identity lost under the numerals of convicts Nos. 25,314 and 25,315, bent their freshly-cropped heads and striped backs over the jute mill looms of San Quentin today.

They began their labor as dutiful prisoners should although John J. McNamara appeared to take less interest in the prison scenes than his brother.

John J. will continue in the jute mill indefinitely, while his brother may be given an easier task if found to be suffering with tuberculosis, for which he will be examined.

The prisoners were aroused from their first night sleep in San Quentin in the clangor of the bell at 6 o'clock this morning. At 6:45 they became a part of the serpentine-like line formed by 1900 men in stripes and made up to the mess hall. There the inmates of the prison eat of boiled beans, cornmeal mush and coffee. The jute mill was opened for work at 7 o'clock.

James J. McNamara has been the constant cheerleader of the two and began to pick up acquaintances yesterday, so as to obtain points on prison routine. John J. McNamara devoted himself to a careful study of the prison rules, which were on the wall, and caused the prison officials to say the men evidently hope to act as model prisoners with a view to reward in the future.

[TELETYPE NOT RETURNING. JOURNALIST WANTED THIS MORNING.] SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—According to information received by the United States Marshal's office here, G. A. Tveitmoen, secretary of the State Building Trades' Council, for whom a subpoena has been issued by the Federal grand jury in Los Angeles, is not returning to San Francisco as has been reported, but still is in New York. Anton Johansson, State organizer of the building trades' council, who has been sought as a witness, is understood to be en route to San Francisco. The marshal's office will serve him with a subpoena on his arrival.

Mr. Johansson, it was learned today, also will be a witness before the Los Angeles Federal Inquisitors. A subpoena was served on her yesterday. Owing to the illness of a daughter, however, Mrs. Johansson may not be able to go South for several days.

Henry P. Kaplan, who arranged the dynamite in the launch Peatime about a month before the Times Building was blown up, was subpoenaed to appear at Los Angeles from a wharf when the launch came in. The men who are known to be J. B. McNamara, Schmidt and Kaplan, asked him to watch the boat while they went up the street, telling him to keep the boat from hitting the wharf. Pines investigated and found ten cases of dynamite in the boat.

Emily Superich, one of the minor witnesses, also was subpoenaed.

Among those called to appear in Los Angeles are John Seymour, former Chief of Police, and Chief of Police E. L. Gibson, former detective who worked on the case from this end. H. E. Rennie, of the Giant Powder Company; Eugene Wadell and R. Bodeker, Seymour and Gibson conducted the investigation which resulted in the discovery that McNamara had registered here in several hotels, and that he lived in the home of Mrs. Ingarsoll.

A large number of the subpoenas bore the names of employees of the Argonaut Hotel, where James B. McNamara, under the name of "J. B. Bryce" and his companion, the missing "Mohannite," were registered for about ten days prior to the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times Building. Numerous employees of the Giant Powder Company, from which the dynamite obtained the explosives used in Los Angeles, also were subpoenaed.

One of the most important witnesses to be subpoenaed was Mrs. Mary Dye, in whose house "Mohannite" boarded while the conspiracy against The Times was hatching.

Several persons have been subpoenaed who did not figure in the original plot and investigation of this case. It is H. A. Tveitmoen, clerk in the Winchester Hotel here, where James B. McNamara registered as "Bryce" a month before the Times Building exploded.

STENOGRAHHER TALKS. [BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES] PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Dec. 11.—"I have known the McNamara all my life," said Miss Mary Dye today, "and I never saw anything which looked like a dynamite conspiracy."

Miss Dye, now a stenographer for a Pittsburgh concern, was formerly confidential secretary to John J. McNamara in the headquarters of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers in Indianapolis.

"All the business of the structural ironworkers' was done within the organization. I don't know how it is possible to bring in Samuel Gompers or any others into this thing," she said.

A NEW NAME. [BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES] CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—A new name, that of Mary Dye, was brought today into the discussions of the McNamara case by Miss Nora Haley, former book-keeper in the office of the structural ironworkers' in Indianapolis.

Miss Dye, who is now in Pittsburgh, according to Miss Haley, was the confidential secretary of John J. McNamara and recorded the financial transactions of the two brothers.

DEPART FOR LOS ANGELES. [BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—Nearly all of the more than sixty witnesses subpoenaed in this city and nearby towns to appear as witnesses before the Federal grand jury in Los Angeles investigating the dynamite conspiracy left for the northern city. With the exception of one or two cases where illness may prevent, all of the witnesses will be in Los Angeles before the

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND ON SALT LAKE TRACKS.

MYSTERY surrounds the finding of the body of an unidentified man on the Salt Lake tracks near Soto street, at 9 o'clock last night. That the woman was murdered and her body thrown on the tracks is the belief of the police.

The body, which was found by a switchman by the name of Taylor, was later compelled to abandon the man who was thrown across the tracks much more than the first time to pass would have severed the head and limbs. Officials of the Salt Lake last night denied knowledge of the finding.

The body is being held at Brees Bros', undertaking establishment. An inquest will probably be held today.

STATE CONTROL
IS PREFERRED.of the Railway Securities Commission.Fully Adverse to Super-sition by Nation.Gold Taff Concur in the Recommendations.

A LETTER TO THE TIMES:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The Railroad Securities Commission, headed by Chairman T. Hadley of Yale. They recommend that it would be practical at this time to place a moratorium on securities under the control of the commission. The commission recommends that the railroad securities publicty be given a moratorium to prevent any arbitrage. The commission believes that the amount and face value of outstanding securities have only an indirect effect upon the actual making of rates and that they should have little, if any, weight in their regulation.The commission does not approve of any unqualified proposition to prohibit ownership of stock of one road by another. To do so, the report says, would involve so much disturbance of existing relations whatever may be the evils attendant upon such holdings. It is recommended, however, that wherever a group of men or companies has bought a majority of stock in a road they may be properly required to buy the minority at the same price.

FOR LOS ANGELES MEET.

Perkins and Works Ask Hitchcock to Issue a Special Aviation Postage Stamp in Commemoration.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—[Exclusive
Dispatch.] Senator Works, a member of the Senate Democratic Commerce Committee, has written to President Taft to recommend that the party be represented at the meeting of the Los Angeles aviation meet. The letter follows:The directors of the third international aviation meet, to be held January 19-23, are endeavoring to make Los Angeles the center of aviation in the world. They have petitioned your department to issue special aeronautic stamps for use in California in connection with the aviation meet. Los Angeles is making a very substantial feature of meetings of this kind and has spent large amounts of money in the effort to advance the aeronautic industry and accomplishment. We respectfully ask that if not inconsistent with the rules and regulations of the Postoffice Department, you kindly comply with the request of our people to issue this special stamp.

GREAT BRIDGE PROJECT.

Los Angeles Man Proposed to Link
Oakland and San Francisco Like Brooklyn and New York.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—[Exclusive
Dispatch.] Senator Works today introduced a bill granting to Allan C.
Rush the right of way, and other privileges for the construction of a suspension bridge across San Francisco Bay, to connect San Francisco and Oakland, via Goat Island.The terminals are to be near Telegraph Hill in San Francisco and on the Tidemands, near the Judson Iron Works in Oakland.
The bridge is to be "double-decked," 118 feet wide, without draws, and having provision for steam and electric railway trains, automobiles, horse-drawn vehicles, bicycles and pedestrians, for telephone, telegraph, high heat and power cables, conduits and wires. It is to be supported by ten or twelve cables, each 250 feet in diameter, 250 feet apart, except in two cases, where the distance will be greater. At no place is the bridge to be less than 145 feet above high tide.Rush, a civil engineer, he expects opposition from railroad interests, but says he has enough financial backing to carry out his plan.The committee will continue its hearing tomorrow.

SOME SARCASM.

legislative system. He said the only idea to the United States by the abrogation of the treaty might be the 1 per cent of American foreign commerce.Louis Marshall said the conditions in Russia were worse than ever before and the Jews could not be persecuted more.Culberson and others will be heard by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations Wednesday in support of the Culberson resolution to abrogate the treaty.

Cities and Towns of Los Angeles County.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

VANITY FAIR
IS THE RAGE.Pasadena Preparing Feature for Tournament Day.Los Angeles Man Submits a Bid to Lead Band.Burglars Busy Taking Cash and Fine Jewelry.

Offices of The Times, El Segundo Ave., Pasadena.

PASADENA, Dec. 12.—If anticipations of the Tournament of Roses Association directors are fulfilled the crowd in Pasadena New Year's Day will be so great that it will spill over the edges.

"Last year there were 160,000 visitors in the city the day of the Tournament of Roses," said Frank V. Rider, secretary of the association, last night, "and this year all indications are that there will be a much larger crowd. I would not be surprised if there should be 150,000. When I say indications point to this, I mean it. I speak of reliable indications, the ones that we have found in that the many tournaments can be reckoned on."

The "Mask of Vanity Fair" is now the magic phrase. To be a component part of this feature of the floral parade is to be decked with the very highest of tournament honors.

The "Mask of Vanity Fair" will be a collection of fifty automobiles. Each one of these must be a strictly private car, with no connection with any business concern or public organization. They will be decorated at an enormous expense with the choicest of California blooms, and in them will ride the matrons and belles of the city's most exclusive society.

The fact that there can be but fifty of these cars, while there are nearer 150 residents of the city, many of whom would even go so far as to buy a car especially designed to place a place in this section of the parade, is causing much friendly rivalry.

Last night, at a meeting of the board of directors of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, it was decided that that organization will supply a feature of the parade. Just what it will be has not been determined. A committee composed of J. A. Phelps, Harry McCall and L. C. Dussett was appointed to make arrangements.

TALKS OF MUSIC.

Bruce Gordon Kingsley, organist for the Temple Baptist Church in Los Angeles, was one of a number of musicians who yesterday submitted bids to the City Commission for organizing and conducting the proposed Pasadena Municipal Band.

Kingsley addressed the commissioners upon matters pertaining to music and stated that he believes the new band could be made the nucleus of a first symphony orchestra of the State. He took the stand that Pasadena, by reason of the character of its residents, is naturally equipped to become a musical center of the Pacific Coast.

What Kingsley wants the commissioners to do is to authorize him to organize the band that the city has now and then than can generally be devoted to it in the large organization of string and wind instruments in Southern California. He believes that the greater number of players might be found right here in the city.

George Mulford, leader of the Catalina Island band, was another applicant. He agreed to furnish a twenty-nine piece band and instruments for $340, a week with an extra charge of $50 a week for his own services as conductor. He said such an arrangement would provide six concerts each week. There were a number of other applicants.

"We have reached no decision yet," said Commissioner H. R. Hertel last night, "but the tournament will probably be held soon at which time we shall decide just what to do."

The commission yesterday decided to recommend to the City council that $800 be expended in the installation of new light system in Central Park. The commissioners also decided to recommend to the City Council that it award the contract for the planting of grass in the parkings of South Orange Grove avenue to Williams and Green Company. The bid was $740.

The question of fire apparatus also was discussed, but no action was taken concerning it.

BURGLARS ARE BUSY.

The house of a Japanese caretaker at the home of C. S. Campbell Johnson, in San Rafael Heights, was burglarized between 11 and 12 o'clock yesterday morning. The burglar took clothes to the value of $200, some of which had been left in the care of the Japanese occupant by friends, were taken. A gold watch and a diamond ring were among the loot.

J. H. Slaughter of No. 722 Fremont avenue, South Pasadena, reported to the police yesterday morning that he was burglarized last Sunday afternoon and that $500 worth of jewelry was taken. Slaughter left home at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and when he returned at 4:30 o'clock found the rooms in disorder. The house had been thoroughly ransacked. Entrance was made through the back door, which had been pried open, it is believed, by the burglar.

VOTERS DIVIDED ON PROPOSITION.GLENDALE FAVORABLE, BUT NOT SO TROPICO, MAYBE.Bonds for Construction of Municipal Lighting Plant to Be Balloted on Election Saturday.
Whittier Citizen and Friends
Come to Grief for Speeding.

GLENDALE, Dec. 11.—The campaign for and against consolidation of this city and Glendale, which is to be settled at the polls next Saturday, started in earnest this morning. It promises to grow more heated every minute until the polls are closed. Both factions have been resting up for this final week of the struggle. Tropico will be the scene of the hardest fight. While it is generally conceded that Glendale will go almost alone for the move, it is expected that the Tropico end of the fight will belong to either side until the voters are counted.

So confident are the anti-consolidationists of victory that the city of Tropico has called an election for the voting of $20,000 bonds for the construction of a municipal electric lighting plant, to be held on December 22. There is no considerable doubt that the bonds will be defeated, even though consolidation should be defeated next Saturday. A two-thirds vote is necessary for the voting of bonds. The officers at the bond election have been named as follows: Inspectors—Wesley H. Bullis, E. L. Young; Judges—Joseph McPheters, Andy Stevenson; clerks—Albert E. Noble, William B. Pratt; ballot clerks—John W. Stanton, Al F. Hart.

J. L. Whittaker, one of the most prominent of Glendale's citizens, died at his home, No. 208 West Ninth street, at 11:40 o'clock Saturday evening, of pneumonia. Mr. Whittaker was 53 years old, was born in England, and came to America in 1887—being a boy then. For twenty-one years he was a resident of Glendale. He was a faithful worker in the Glendale Episcopal Church, and for years had been a diligent student in the study of astronomy.

The deceased leaves a widow, Mrs. Eleanor A. Whittaker; a son, Reginald Whittaker, and a daughter, Miss Iris Whittaker, all living at this place. The funeral service is to be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow at the St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Rev. R. O. Macintosh to officiate.

O. Sargeant of Whittier was arrested at 8 o'clock last night by Marshal Miller, for speeding, while returning with his friends from a boat trip on Elizabeth Lake. He gave a false name, said he stated he would forfeit rather than come to Glendale for hearing.

The third degree will be conferred upon members by the Unity Lodge No. 268 F. and A. M., at Masonic Hall, on Brand boulevard tomorrow night. At this meeting the installation of the new officers will be held.

Worshipful Master: Charles Wilbur McFadden; Senior Warden, John Hobbs; Junior Warden, Richard Clark Sternberg; Treasurer, A. V. Vincent; Secretary, C. A. Johnson; Power, Captain Rowland Oliver McIntosh; Senior Deacon, Ernest John Morgan; Junior Deacon, Harry Percy Coker; Senior Steward, Allen Lincoln Bryant; Junior Steward, Alvin Clark; Chaplain, Jesus S. Stine. The Glendale lodge will confer the third degree for the Eagle Rock Masonic Lodge on Wednesday evening.

The deceased was born in Mexico and came to Azusa four years ago. He was married a year ago, and with his wife lived in a cottage at the crusher, where he had been employed for some months.

[The Argonaut] Cordwood made from sawdust and shavings is the outcome of an idea of a planing mill in a western city. The material is then turned into plunger-like pieces later. A pressure of thirty tons forces the particles together into a solid mass. The machine turns out five tons of fuel a day, which sells readily at $10 a ton, or an average net profit of $4.50, all of which was formerly thrown away.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

All the remaining aqueduct bonds are to be sold February 1.

Chief Engineer Mulholland of the aqueduct and the Board of Public Works asked yesterday for an investigation of socialist charges of misconduct of aqueduct affairs.

A woman who gave a diamond ring to a man and afterward demanded its return was yesterday awarded the sum of $100 by a Superior Court decision.

At the City Hall.

QUEDUCT BONDS A ALL TO BE SOLD.

INVESTIGATION ASKED FOR BY PUBLIC WORKS BOARD.

Chief Engineer's Request Is Favored by Commission and Referred to Council—Outside Engineers to Furnish Experts Knowledge in Inquiry—Laborers Want More Pay.

Aqueduct matters occupied much of the attention of the City Hall class yesterday, and at sundown the amount necessary to complete the aqueduct was known. Job Harriman's loose talk as to the management of the aqueduct construction had caused the Chief Engineer Mulholland and the Board of Public Works to demand an investigation, and some of the laborers on the aqueduct had revived the demand for more pay.

Under the terms of the agreement with the syndicate of New York brokers, Kountze Brothers and A. B. Leach & Company, the city must let them know forty days before February 1, how much of the remaining aqueduct bonds are to be taken up under their option.

At the meeting, the city was in attendance at the committee meeting, was notified to inform the syndicate brokers of what was required.

The result of the action of Mulholland and the Board of Public Works will not be known by the City Council formally until this morning. It is embraced in a letter forwarded to the Council with a resolution from the board.

"Now that the campaign is over, we have for its principal subject of discussion the Los Angeles aqueduct," says Mulholland. "I strongly feel that steps should be taken, without delay, to put the people of the city in possession of full and reliable information concerning the present public work, and I therefore respectfully request that your honorable body recommend to the City Council that it appoint a committee composed of one or more of the private citizens as may be deemed best, to make, with independent engineering assistance, a thorough investigation not alone of the physical features of the work, but of the administration, and all other departments thereof as well. It is not asserted or pretended that the work on the aqueduct has been free from the customary waste and from various causes on projects of this magnitude, but I think, considering the great length of the aqueduct and the comparatively inaccessible character of the construction, it is but the amount of such waste and losses may reasonably be regarded as moderate and permissible. But, whatever may be the fact on the point, that it would be well for the people of this time to know the true conditions of this work so that they may be able to judge for themselves whether it has been carried on in a proper manner, and the knowledge acquired in this way is due not alone to the public, but also to myself and the men who have been my associates in this important work."

Then, in a resolution to the Council asking that the Council appoint a committee of members of that body or of private citizens asking also for independent engineering advice to such an investigation, to be placed at the disposal of the committee, its construction and every point in connection therewith.

MORE PAY DEMANDED.

The laborers were brought up in connection with the aqueduct by a committee that called on Mayor Alexander late in the afternoon. C. F. Graw, defeated Socialist candidate for the Council, was the spokesman of the committee, which demanded an increase in pay for the men and boller-makers on the aqueduct.

The position of the men a year ago will be recalled. At that time the cost of meals was increased by 5 cents a meal, which made three meals a day cost the men 15 cents more than they had been paying. The pay of laborers at that time was increased by 25 cents a day.

These men are compelled on the bonus system, one of the best ever known both for the employees and employers, especially in such work as that on the aqueduct. They were not given an increase at the time the workers were paid, and Graw said that they should have it now.

Mayor Alexander said he believed that whatever could be done to raise the pay of men on the aqueduct should be done if the same was fair, and he told the delegation to submit their proposition in writing.

HOLLYWOOD STREETS.

PROPOSED ORDINANCES.

Many street improvements in Hollywood are recommended to the City Council in a communication from the City Engineer filed yesterday after the dredging. The work is recommended by the official and for which an ordinance will be passed today, is as follows:

El Centro avenue from Fountain avenue to Melrose avenue: Vine street from Fountain avenue to Melrose avenue. Gower street from Fountain avenue to Melrose avenue: Lodi place from Lexington avenue to Santa Monica boulevard: Bunker avenue from El Centro avenue to the 10th street; Olive avenue from Gower street to Vine street; Barton avenue from Gower street to Vine street; Willoughby avenue from Gower street to Vine street; Gower street from Gower street to Vine street; Waring avenue.

from Gower street to Vine street; Melrose avenue from Lillian's way to Vine street.

Graveling, oiling and curbing with cement curbs, sidewalkings with cement sidewalks, five feet wide, guttering with cement and vitrified block gutters, three feet wide, and constructing the necessary culverts and drains, constitute the improvements to be ordered.

BOARD WANTS MONEY.

That the city has a bonding capacity of $7,052,993.30, which may be devoted to parks and public improvements other than public utilities (for which 12 per cent. of the assessed valuation of the city is allowed) was discovered by the Park Commission yesterday, and the result of this the City Council will be asked to make work for Arroyo Seco Park and other park improvements harder than ever.

The total amount allowed for public improvements is 3 per cent. of the assessed valuation of the city, which is $2,690,690. Three per cent. of this is $81,180.00. On public improvements other than public utilities, the city has spent $2,884,137.50, but has never issued bonds for purposes for more than $10,000 in all its history.

Park Commission proposes, therefore, that there shall be bonds issued at once. Yesterday, Landscape Engineer Cox and the City Club General Committee, of which Councilman McKittrick is chairman, were given a presentation of the endorsement of the land necessary for Arroyo Seco Park, as far as the northern limits of this city. An assessment district to include the entire city will be created for the park, and the amount of the money obtained by the park will be used to pay for the purchase of bonds.

A hearing will be had before the City Council at an early date and Judge Silent will appear for the commission.

RUN CARS TO PARK.

VERMONT AVENUE CONDITIONS.

Any railway company that gets a franchise to operate cars on Vermont avenue will have to agree to establish a through car service to Griffith Park, if the Park Commission has its way. Yesterday the commission addressed letters to the City Council asking that no franchise be granted for a through car service unless it is stipulated and agreed that the through car shall revert to the bequeather.

AFRAID OF BOOZE. E. C. Miller, who might have escaped prison by being put on probation, withdrew his application and was sentenced to two years in Folsom by Judge Willis yesterday for stealing a woman's purse during a fire in a Los Angeles street during the night of Dec. 1. Miller said he is a barge fighter and did not believe that he could keep straight. Owing to his acts while intoxicated, Miller uses an alias to save his parents' shame. He is said to be a member of a respectable Boston family.

RAKES 'EM AGAIN. The Police Court was again raked over the coals yesterday by Judge Willis for taking up the time of the Superior Court in a trivial case. The prisoner, Francisco Gonzales, was charged with having killed Frank, a woman with a deadly weapon. The facts in the case showed that Gonzales gave a girl a ring and was choked in a jealous rage by Montays for doing so. Gonzales shot off his revolver to summon help and was arrested. It was plain to the court that the charge against Gonzales should have been carrying a concealed deadly weapon. He continued the case to investigate it.

SEEKS PAROLE. Dr. J. W. Jones, who was convicted of bribery and sentenced to San Quentin, but is being held here as a witness in the case of former Patrolman White on the same charge, asked Judge McCormick for parole yesterday. Jones, who is 62, is understood by the court attaches, will apply for a pardon and cannot make the application until he is held here in sentence in prison.

STOCK ISSUE. Lawyers argued at length in Judge Conley's court yesterday on a demurrer bearing on the payment of a subscription for stock in the defunct Duquesne Brewing Company. The case was that of F. W. Hunt, who was one of the agents of the company, against James W. Byrne. Byrne is executors of the will of his brother, Callaghan Byrne, and he declined to pay Hunt's claim of $20,000 for 4000 shares of the company stock. The demurser was submitted on briefs.

BRIDE'S WORTH THE FEE.

Mexican Groom Doesn't Understand Why Justice Should Be Paid for Tying Knot But Compiles.

Although the marriage ceremony of Trinidad Herrera and Miss Francisca Franco was performed with the aid of an interpreter by Justice Young yesterday, the groom could not understand why he was asked to pay $3 merely because he had become a benedict.

"Me sabe marri, all right," said Herrera, but why pay?

The interpreter explained that every man who was married by a notary public paid $3, and the groom over $2 and that it is not a graft game.

"Oh, well, she is worth it and much more," replied the Mexican in his native tongue and handed Justice Young the required fee.

DEAD BY STRYCHNINE.

Coroner's Investigation Clears Up Circumstances Regarding Death of Old Resident of Hollywood.

The funeral services of the late Byron Wesley Long, who died last Wednesday morning from the effects of a dose of strychnine taken with suicidal intent at his home No. 503 Orange avenue, Hollywood, were held yesterday at the Hollywood Cemetery.

Faithful friends and dependency are said to have been present.

Long was born in Livingston County, New York, 49 years ago. He came to Los Angeles in 1894, residing in the city until 1904, when he removed to Hollywood. He leaves a widow and four children, Mrs. J. L. Millard, Mrs. K. E. Vickery and Travis Long, of this city and Mrs. P. D. Quinlan, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Considerable unnecessary mystery was thrown about the case through the reluctance of those in possession of the facts to make any statement regarding the matter. He had previously turned in a death certificate in which it was stated, according to Coroner Hartwell, that death was "due to an overexposure by the use of strychnine." The Coroner did not care to state the facts until he was asked by the authorities why he had not attested the fact of suicide in his report he stated that he did not know that it was necessary.

YOUNG WOMAN LEAVES HOME.

Mrs. Eva Beaman, 18, of 2155 Second avenue, charmingly entertained a number of her young friends Saturday evening in celebration of her eighteenth birthday. Cards were enjoyed in the room, which were aglow with lavender blossoms. The girl wrote her mother from Riverside, saying she was going to Arizona. A description of the young woman has been sent broadcast by the police.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Harry Wolverton signed a contract at Hotel Astor tonight to manage the Highlanders team for the season 1912. Wolverton could not negotiate with President Farrell without consent of the Oakland Club, with which he had signed for next season until today when Farrell received the required telegram from California. Wolverton was released by Wolters of Oakland Club probably in exchange for a sum of money and as soon as he met Farrell, he began to talk terms. There was little delay and when a certain figure had been named Wolverton signed and was congratulated by Ben Johnson and other American League men.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES
NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The National Commission issued a statement tonight inviting the public to present proof that there was collusion between the New York National League club and its officers and the ticket scalpers in the world's series last October. So far, Chairman August Herrmann said the commission had spent $1500 looking for evidence and was prepared to spend more.

This was one of several matters that kept the commission for six hours behind closed doors. Another matter discussed was gambling in baseball pools, upon which the members placed a ban. To correct this evil, the commission adopted a resolution requesting the American and National leagues to do all in their power to end that custom.

It was also decided that the commission would consult with the post office authorities and the proper officials to secure their co-operation to that end. It having been reported to the commission that several newspapers and other periodicals carried the pools, making it seem a lottery.

The committee also decided that it would request the leagues of the Eastern and Pacific Coast League and of American Association for higher rating of President Lynch of the National League, and President Johnson of the American League. Each major league will consider the question at its meeting tomorrow. The commission will then consider the matter at its annual meeting in Cincinnati January 5, and dispose of the matter then.

Incidentally, the Eastern League meeting, a few blocks away, voted to change its name to the International League.

In length of discussion, the world's series ticket scandal overpassed even the long talk before the National Commission. When adjournment was taken Chairman Herrmann threw the South.

open the doors to newspaper men and made an oral statement. "Insofar as the investigation of the sale of the tickets during the world's series is concerned, the commission has started a rigid investigation. It has expended more than $1500 and is prepared to spend more. The tickets were in the hands of speculators both in New York and Philadelphia; it also realizes that the speculators were not the only ones to buy the tickets. What we want to know, however, is whether any one connected with the New York club or the Philadelphia club was in collusion with any of the speculators or speculators themselves to secure information along that line.

"If any newspaper has information along this line, an individual or newspaper writer—the commission would be glad to hear from them and to take up the matter with them. In the meantime we are continuing our investigation. We are in the middle of it now and we are going to the bottom of the matter."

WEBSTER QUOTED.

To illustrate the fact that the existence of these evil conditions and the enemies of the peace and welfare of society who develop them are not the result of the natural development of speech delivered in the United States Senate more than seventy-eight years ago by Daniel Webster, in which that illustrious statesman said:

"There are persons who constantly clamor. They complain of oppression, speculation and the pernicious influence of accumulated wealth.

"They cry out loudly against all but the most despotic and tyrannical means by which small capitals become united, in order to produce important and beneficial results. They carry on much hostility against all established institutions. They would check the fountains of industry, and dry all its streams.

"In a country of unbounded liberty, they clamor against oppression. In a country of perfect equality, they would move heaven and earth against privilege and monopoly. In a country where property is more equally divided among the people, they would contend with the shouting of agrarian doctrines.

"To utilize this surplus capacity,

they would seek to exploit the markets for the products of our mills and factories.

At this time many great industries not only have the capacity to supply all the present and immediately prospective demands of the United States, but have a surplus capacity adequate to meeting the needs of a much larger population.

To utilize this surplus capacity,

they would seek to exploit the markets for the products of our mills and factories.

This is a truly topic in many respects for the desirability of securing foreign markets has been preached to this country by diplomats, statesmen, consuls and editors of trade papers for many years. According to some of the most ardent advocates of export trade, the American manufacturer has been deluded in his duties that respect. To accept this as a truth would be to accept a great misconception.

In the first place, the individual skill of the operative is so great a factor, it is encouraging to note that our exports of manufactured cotton have tripled in this period.

The gradual development of manufacturing industries in other lands tends to provide a market for a wider range of manufactured articles.

Intelligence and skill, which are the result of the education of the masses, are the chief factors which have surrounded and do surround the industries of this country.

It is not the business of the manufacturer to cultivate export markets merely for the sake of saying that he is an exporter. It is his business to so utilize his resources and capacity as will bring the most benefit and lasting value to himself, his associates and his employees, whether the market be local, country-wide or world-wide.

To say that this country "that contains less than the United States in the exports of this or that article or commodity means but little; it does not necessarily mean that that country is less successful in its export of the volume of business larger or worse off than they are. Such people are always ready listeners to the tongue of the world and are easily swayed by the arguments of their special interests. They are experts at destruction, but, for construction, they rely on the men and the system they represent.

Our foreign trade marked a line, and as long as we hewed to it the nation progressed, but we seem to have lost that line and are now hewing to haphazard and broken lines.

What the result will be if we keep on in that way, we can only predict. But it is most likely to be chaotic and disastrous.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC TRADE.

Coming now, more especially, to the subject assigned to me, the Foreign and Domestic Affairs of Our Foreign and Domestic Trade. I wish to direct your attention to some points in the conditions of the times in which they were uttered, they are no less appropriate to the conditions existing today.

Many people who have not shared in the prosperity of the country seem to think that they should have done, attribute the failure to realize their hopes and expectations to what they choose to call "the foreigner." That is the basis upon which society and business are organized. They never stop to ask whether the real cause is not inherent in the system, whether it is not more organized along the lines of their own ideas, they would be better or worse off than they are. Such people are always ready listeners to the tongue of the world and are easily swayed by the arguments of their special interests. They are experts at destruction, but, for construction, they rely on the men and the system they represent.

Our foreign trade marked a line, and as long as we hewed to it the nation progressed, but we seem to have lost that line and are now hewing to haphazard and broken lines.

What the result will be if we keep on in that way, we can only predict. But it is most likely to be chaotic and disastrous.

of interest in connection with our standing in foreign markets.

We have arrived at a wonderful period in our industrial development. A period which may present difficulties before us that are pressing for solution to a greater degree, perhaps, than ever before, and some of these problems are momentously important among them, in the manner and extent in which men and capital may combine or unite for the development of industry and the conservation of energy.

The great problems are constantly clamor. They complain of oppression, speculation and the pernicious influence of accumulated wealth.

They cry out loudly against all but the most despotic and tyrannical means by which small capitals become united, in order to produce important and beneficial results. They carry on much hostility against all established institutions.

Our foreign trade marked a line, and as long as we hewed to it the nation progressed, but we seem to have lost that line and are now hewing to haphazard and broken lines.

What the result will be if we keep on in that way, we can only predict. But it is most likely to be chaotic and disastrous.

The following summary of the space used and matter printed in Sunday's Times will convey some idea of the wonderful variety of news, literary and advertising subjects covered by this incomparable issue.

The space used for cuts, pictures, headings and office advertising is not included in this computation:

PENSION BILL PASSES HOUSE.

Sherwood Service Measure to Care for Veterans.

Now Goes to Senate After a Hard Struggle.

Scores of Amendments Are Voted Down.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The Sherwood service pension bill, which would add upwards of $40,000,000 to the government annual expenditures by granting increased pensions to Civil and Mexican war veterans on the basis of length of service, was passed by the House tonight, despite the determined opposition of many Democratic leaders.

Secretary of the Interior Fisher has estimated that the bill would add $75,000,000 to the pension rolls if all the 100,000 veterans eligible took advantage of the increased pension.

The Republicans who voted with the eighty-four Democrats against the bill are Gardner, Gillett and McCall of Massachusetts; Hill, Connecticut; Kent, California; McCrea, Pennsylvania; Payne, New York, and Utter, Rhode Island.

Speaker Clark voted with the majority of his party for the bill. Democratic Leader Underwood and Fitzgerald of New York, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, voted against it.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where there is a disposition to pass some form of amended service pension legislation. Senate leaders, however, will proceed slowly in the consideration of this legislation and many House Democrats voted for the measure in the belief that the Senate would not pass it.

HARD FIGHT IS ON.

The Sulloway age pension bill, passed by the House last spring, failed of passage in the Senate. This Republican measure was offered unsuccessfully in the House as a substitute for the Sherwood bill. Scores of amendments were offered and a hard, but unequal fight was made to have a straight $15 a day pension bill established without regard to length of service.

The Sherwood bill would establish the following scale of pensions:

For service for ninety days to six months, $15 a month; from six to

SONG WRITER DIVORCED.

Too Many Hours on Broadway Result in Separation of Vincent Bryan and His Wife.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two minutes was all the time required by a jury today in the Supreme Court to decide that Mrs. Rae Selwyn Bryan, sister of Edgar Selwyn, the author of "The Wizard of Id," a known writer of popular songs, such as "Tammie," "Please Don't Take Me Home," and "I Remember You." The Bryans lived happily since their marriage eight years ago until recently, when the wife heard stories of Bryan's alleged gay life along months, $20 a month; from nine months to one year, $25 a month; more than one year, $30 a month.

TWO CHANGES MADE.

Two important changes were made in the Sherwood bill in the course of the all-day battle. At joint amendment by Representatives Harrison of Indiana and Collier of Oklahoma cut the provision denying entrance to Federal soldiers homes to veterans receiving more than $25 a month pension and refusing to State homes Federal aid for the support of such pensioners. The restriction against the payment of any pension to a veteran whose income exceeds $100 a year was voted out on the motion of Representative Rucker of Colorado.

The fight on the bill was waged along political lines to a considerable extent, and members of each party charged the other party with弯曲ing their attitude toward the old soldiers.

Representative Democrats attacked the bill as directly opposed to the Democratic principles of economy, and destructive of the plans to reduce the tax rate.

Chairman Fitzgerald of the Appropriations Committee favored the bill because of its tremendous demands on the treasury. Representative Harrison of New York, leading Democrat on the Ways and Means Committee, declared that the "Knock" in the face all pretensions made by the Democratic party in the last campaign.

STATEMENT DISCLAIMED.

MAINE DISASTER MYSTERY.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] No statement was made today at the State, War and Navy departments of the possession of any information confirmatory of the statements of former Consul A. C. Bries, that he was executed after his release from the Maine two days in advance of the Maine's return to Matanuska. Admiral Wainwright who was executing other orders, said that he had no information to say that no warning reached him. It is the opinion of officials that only through death-bed confession could he be sure of her sharp reply.

"I wish she would tell me what she was thinking when she got away from her influence," said Mr. Wainwright.

WANTED HER TO SAIL.

"I suggested that she send her to a sanitarium, the witness went on, "but she said, 'Oh, no, I can't be mixed up in this thing.'

"The 'Balice,' he said, 'sails tomorrow. She must be sent away on that boat. I'll give you $200 for her expenses.'

"I suggested that she come to me," he said. "I told him I had asked him to get me to her for them to come to me."

Then she said Stokes spoke of his boy and how proud he was of him.

The man, Miss Conrad, who had called up Stokes. "He asked if I had told him I had asked him to get me to her for them to come to me," he said.

Miss Conrad then gave her story of the shooting. She corroborated Miss Graham's version of Stokes' alleged killing of the rounds beneath. His mangled body was found in the rotunda and injured a man who was standing near it. The rotunda was crowded when the man jumped and much confusion ensued. For a time the rumor was prevalent that two men had committed suicide.

Teen Schoolgirls Rescue Professor and Wife, Who Became Asphyxiated in Kitchen.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
TACOMA (Wash.) Dec. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ten Snohomish High School girls last night saved the lives of Prof. Tracy Cox and bride.

Last year Cox played star football at Whitman College. He now teaches history at Snohomish and coaches the High School eleven. Last week at Walla Walla he married Miss Pearl Smith.

Last night ten girls of Cox's classes were guests of himself and bride. Mrs. Cox went to the kitchen to prepare refreshments on a gas stove, with wife and daughter. She admitted she had a bottle of whisky in the house but denied that she had it turned the gas off improperly and became asphyxiated. Noting her delay, her husband went to the kitchen. A few minutes later the High School girls found her unconscious on the kitchen floor with gas poisoning from an open gas jet. The girls carried both into the open air, revived them, and called a doctor.

TO TAKE UP CHARGES.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 12.—The Assembly Judiciary Committee, to which was referred an impeachment investigation against Justices Burnett, Chapman and Hart, of the third District Court of Appeals, laid before the Assembly by Attorney A. H. Carpenter, of Stockton, began an investigation of the case today. A subcommittee consisting of Assemblymen Kehoe, Sutherland, Jones, Joel and Held, was appointed to review the Carpenter plan and demand for an investigation made by the accused judges.

They will meet tomorrow to begin work on the case. Carpenter charged that fraudulent and corrupt decisions were rendered in cases brought by him against Stockton city officials.

COUNTERFEITERS CONFESS.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Albert Leon, Robert Swanson and Fred Marneke, of the Wabash and Western, who confessed to the manufacture of millions of dollars not according to their confession, pleaded guilty in the United States District Court today. Leon and Marneke were sentenced to ten years each and Swanson to five years. Leon, the chief of the firm, took the stand and admitted he was a political refugee. His activity for years has been a thorn in the side of the United States secret service men.
